BOX FACTORY

FINDS IT HARD WORK TO KEEP UP WITH DEMANDS OF FOOD AND FRUIT PRODUCERS

Herman Paine, manager of the box factory in this city, reports that it is turning out a big product, but that it could use still more girls at the hand machines. With food production constantly increasing and the conservation campaign being waged with greater earnestness, there is a big call for containers of every sort and were it not for the automatic machines which have been installed at the factory within the past two years, it would be quite impossible to meet orders. The automatic machines are big, expensive affairs which will turn out in an hour as many baskets as a girl would make in a day, but they represent a large investment and make but one kind of basket. The girls, on the other hand, are adaptable and can be shifted from one class to another, while the machines they use are simple, foot-power affairs. As it is all piece work, the returns depend on the skill and quickness of the worker. Mr. Paine reports that wages have been advanced 30 per cent since last year.

When asked why he always spoke of girls and women in connection with the basket making, and why they do not employ boys, Mr. Paine stated that both have been tried out and the boys, with a few exceptions, do not compare in the nimble use of their fingers with the girls, so the work has naturally gravitated to them.

The question arose as to whether the school vacation season augments the workers. Mr. Paine says not to any appreciable extent, because it takes two or three weeks for a girl to learn the work and become sufficiently expert to earn much. She gets discouraged and quits before she has realized on her investment of time, whereas, if she would stick to it and become expert she could have a job there any time during the year when she had a holiday or a vacation. Some of the workers are school girls who utilize their Saturdays and vacations the year through to earn spending money.

The factory is an interesting place to visit. There is a fascination in watching big blocks shaved like cheese into the thin slices of wood to be used for the baskets, the scoring machines which mark the angles at which they are to be bent, the machines which cut and crimp the tin which rims the baskets, the flying fingers of the girl workers, the great machines which turn out the product with seemingly human intelligence, rejecting the imperfect materials. Then there are the bigger baskets, the crates and drums, made by other ingenious machines. The factory is roomy, the air is resinous with the odor of freshly cut pine and there is a friendly spirit of comradeship among the workers which makes it a pleasant place to work. It is not surprising therefore that the same faces are seen there year after year. At the present 150 employes are enrolled in the factory here. The company has three other factories in Los Angeles.

TRAIN FOR FALL WORK

Wednesday morning, presidents of the various Parent-Teacher Associations of Glendale met at the Intermediate school from 10 to 12 o'clock for a conference and training in official duties. Several other officers and members of the P.-T. A. Federation were present and Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, president of the Federation, conducted the meeting. A decision was reached to hold these conferences at the Intermediate every Wednesday morning throughout the summer that officials may prepare themselves for work in the fall. At the next meeting Dr. Jessie Russell, State President of the P.-T. A. Federation and Mothers' Congress, will address those present on matters in which they are interested.

GEOLOGICAL HIKE

A party of professors and students of Throop college enjoyed a geology hike and fishing expedition in the Big Tejunga canyon over the week-end, leaving Friday and returning Monday. They motored up the canyon to the end of the auto road and from there took a fifty-mile hike, enjoying the fishing and making some interesting geological observations. The party included Capt. Eugene Imler of Glendale, Prof. Franklin Thomas, Captain Inspector for Throop, Prof. Howard Clapp, Captain Frank Capra, Lieut. Robert Sticht, Fritz Karge, Darwin Kirschman, Edison Hoge, and Robert Flory.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Friday. Cloudy along the coast. Moderate westerly winds.

GRIM WAR

BOYS REGRET THEY WERE NOT MORE CONSIDERATE AT HOME

Glendale friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Goode and family, of Calexico, who were prominent Glendale residents for so many years, will be glad to hear from Jack, who is in France. He writes as follows:

"France, May 12, 1918.

"My dear Mamma:

"This is Mothers' day, and you know I will be thinking of you and the old home associations. I am just beginning to understand and appreciate my parents, relatives and friends. They are blessings which I believe very few boys realize while surrounded by them, and I am one who desires to express my sincere thanks for all your gentle kindness and for the ideals which you and the teachers of Glendale high school established in my mind. I am trying to live up to them in a faithful and practical manner to prove that your work has not been in vain. We go into our unpleasant work with prayers in our hearts and on our lips. They say some never pray, but I can not believe that any normal human being ceases to call for help and comfort from a higher power. I certainly would pity one who was too proud to pray. My one regret, and I know I am voicing the sentiments of thousands of boys, is that I was not more considerate and helpful in the home. I now realize I could have done so many more pleasant, helpful things than I did do and I long for another chance.

"Oh, mamma! How little you or I thought a few years ago, when we and the McIntyre boys were playing war, that the whole bunch of us would be soldiers in France at this time, fighting for our country. How little we know of what is ahead of us. Well, whatever happens or wherever I go, nothing can cheat me out of the happy remembrance of an ideal home life in ideal environments, and when the kaiser is sent to banish Satan from Hades and has taken full possession (as he will have a legitimate right to do, on his record) and I can return to sunny Southern California, believe me, I will be a happy boy—like a mother's love, one does not half appreciate it until far away.

"I certainly had a celebration yesterday, for our long-delayed mail and Christmas boxes arrived from Camp Mills, N. Y.—20 letters and five boxes. Among the boxes, and the best of all, was the one sent by the people of Imperial valley. I wish I had some way by which I could express my gratitude to them for this choice remembrance. Please ask papa to write it for me to the Calexico Chronicle. I know every boy from Imperial valley will feel as proud as I do to have been remembered in this whole-hearted way. It is true it is late in the season to receive Christmas boxes, but if it had been the Fourth of July they would have been just as welcome and as highly appreciated, for I never craved for sweets so much in my life. The letters and the snap shots received changed a dark, gloomy day into one of joy and gladness.

"It rains here almost every day. I don't know whether the terrific and constant bombardments change conditions or whether this is their normal weather.

"I have a good campmate. Every man carries what is called a shelter-half and two fellows put theirs together and it makes a nice little tent, very small but cozy. Papa spoke in one of his letters about this being a terrific battle. I agree with him, but from a far different viewpoint, as I am running a motor ambulance, carrying wounded from the field hospital to the base hospital.

"War is surely grim work, but we are treated so well and our people do such magnanimous things for us we are proud to do our bit.

"Thanks for the Sunday Times, Calexico Chonicle, and the Glendale News. Kind regards to all who inquire for me. With all my love I am,

"Ever your son,

"JACK.

ITALIANS FIGHT IN MOUNTAINS

The Italians are improving their positions there to prevent any flanking movement. General Haig reports hostile artillering between Givenchy and Robeq. Minor engagements east of Vieux and Barquin last night were successful for the British. The French front reports artillery engagements north of the Aisne and successful French raids in the Vosges region.

BAR OUT BOOZE

AND BURLESON WITH IT IF NECESSARY, SAYS MR. SPICKERMAN

I presume nearly every family in Glendale has received one of the congressional circulars by Hon. Charles Randall from this District. Every citizen should read the portion concerning the waste of food products in the manufacture of beer. Forty-two million bushels of barley yearly and millions of bushels of other grains, 10,000,000 bushels of corn and millions of pounds of sugar and syrup. One very important and noticeable waste is it takes one pound of coal to manufacture a pint of beer. Last winter when there was such a shortage of fuel and the railroads were so congested, thousands of cars loaded with coal were tagged to be delivered to the breweries and hundreds and hundreds of other cars loaded with beer for dealers and consumers taking up space that should have been filled with equipment for the army and coal for the country everywhere.

Also it took man power and fuel to handle those cars and after delivery it took millions of money to handle the stuff and get the people drunk and then millions and millions more of money to build the prisons and equip them with man power and furnishings for such institutions, and then more millions of money to watch and arrest the drunken people and care for them and more coal to keep the court rooms warm and food to feed the whole bunch, consisting of police, lawyers, judges, witnesses, stenographers, clerks, etc. And they all have to be paid out of the public funds to handle the dirty business and still later as an after consideration of the beer business, divorce and other lawsuits, separating families, and inebriate and orphan asylums to be carried on at public expense.

Now lots of our men, and women too, seem to get enough of the Von Dragon Adolphus Busch's Milwaukee production to make them so drunk they can't drive an automomile without being arrested and put in the jug. If one goes to get a little sweetening for a few strawberries or to sweeten a Hooverized corn meal, Barley flour, oatmeal substituted cake, all he can get is a little two pounds of sugar. Oh, shame on the American people at this time to allow this everlasting waste of foodstuffs in liquor manufacture, which sends more people to their graves than the Huns can in the trenches with gas and bullets! Let us in California do our bit in helping Uncle Sam put the big artillery beer machine out of business.

I am surprised beyond measure that our Postmaster General would put up such a flimsy, threadbare, worn-out, Germanized argument that men in the shipyards would accomplish more or be more efficient if drunk or half drunk. Voters of California, let's put the booze out and if necessary put the Postmaster General out with it.

C. W. SPICKERMAN.

DEATH OF I. E. WEAVER

Thursday morning at 1:30 o'clock, June 27th, 1918, in the gray light before dawn, death came to I. E. Weaver of 822 West Fifth street, Glendale, following several weeks of illness. Mr. Weaver has been classed as an old resident of this city, in which he has made his permanent home for more than four years. Before that time he spent his winters here, and so became identified with local interests and made many friends who will sincerely mourn his loss. His son, Dr. Bert Weaver of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, arrived Monday morning, and with a brother and a sister, Mrs. Ira Moyse, was with his father when he passed away, as was also his wife, Mrs. Laura A. Weaver. Sharing their loss is Prof. George U. Moyse, son-in-law and neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver. Funeral arrangements have not been perfected but will be announced in Friday's paper.

IN CAMP GLEE CLUB

DANA BURKET OF CAMP KEARNY HOSPITAL UNIT IS SINGER

Glendale citizens will be glad to have news of their favorite, Dana Burket, now a member of Hospital Unit No. 35 at Camp Kearny. Dana's fine voice has been commandeered for the Camp Kearny Glee Club in which he sings first tenor. The club numbers twenty-four singers and Carrie Jacobs Bond, the Hollywood composer, has written a special song for them which is entitled "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." It will be sung at the big benefit for Base Hospital No. 35, which is to be given at Trinity Auditorium in Los Angeles Saturday night, and Mrs. Bond will be at the piano. The concert is given under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of Base Hospital No. 35, which is made up of the wives, mothers and sweethearts of the soldiers, who have banded together to supply them with hospital garments and other comforts and necessities. Miss Margaret McKee, well known in this city, is called the godmother of the unit. She will contribute several numbers to the program. Clyde Collison, well known in musical circles before his enlistment, is director of the glee club, and Newell Parker, formerly organist of the First Methodist Church of Los Angeles, will be its accompanist. The hospital unit will probably soon be called overseas.

RED CROSS NOTES

Stores are accumulating in the hospital garments department of the Red Cross Chapter under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lawrence Ellis and it is expected that two cases will be shipped to San Francisco the last of this week or first of next. A call has come for outing flannel pajamas and work upon them and upon summer pajamas will probably start in the near future. Now that school is out many mothers are taking work home that they may spend the time there with their children instead of coming to headquarters. This makes more room in the department for workers who will be very welcome. With fearful battles in progress there will be calls for many hospital supplies and every woman who can arrange to spare a few hours a week should enroll at the Red Cross rooms.

Mrs. R. A. Blackburn was again at the desk at Red Cross headquarters Wednesday afternoon when members of Chapter L. of the P. E. O. of which she is a member, were at work under Mrs. Ellis.

Members of the Red Cross in the Surgical Dressings Department have been making triangular bandages this week. The list of workers Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday included Mesdames A. A. Burchfield, M. G. Musser, B. Matthiesen, Lee Kaster, L. B. Munn, C. Farnham, Josephine Farnham, Mary E. Chester, C. C. Tucker, C. N. Erling, C. E. Case, O. F. Walker, Archie Parker, W. A. Reynolds, U. F. Wiley, D. B. Pingree, P. A. Wells, C. L. Bullard, G. K. Barnes, C. E. Harlan, Edgar W. Pack, A. W. Beach, V. Price Brown, Dorothy Brown, E. W. Towle, Jacob Kull, J. A. Coles, C. C. Tucker, P. A. Kranz, H. M. Oswald, Augusta W. Otto.

FAREWELL SERVICES

Next Sunday will be the last on which Rev. Vernon H. Cowsert will officiate as pastor at the First Baptist church in this city, he having accepted a call to Corning, California. He is leaving the Glendale church in an excellent condition, as its membership has increased under his ministration and its financial circumstances materially improved. He has occupied its pulpit for two years and in that time has made many friends for himself and the church. It is therefore expected that all the members and friends of the church will come out to these farewell services to say good-bye to Mr. Cowsert and bid him Godspeed in his new field. Mr. Wright, one of the Church trustees, reports that in addition to meeting current obligations, the Church has been able to subscribe $500 towards the million-dollar fund which the denomination is endeavoring to raise, and that one item is a convincing proof of the prosperous condition of the organization.

Alton M. Brooks of 211 Jackson street, principal of one of the Los Angeles schools, who volunteered as a Y. M. C. A. worker in case he should be needed, has gone north to the Y. M. C. A. school at Asilomar near San Francisco to investigate the requirements and find out whether he is to be sent or not.

SINCERITY

Text, Aquarian Gospel, Chap. 48: 18, 19. My Father scorns deceit, and I am here to do His will. Deceive these priests! Not while the sun shall shine. What I have said, that I have said; I will be true to them, to God, and to myself.

Text, Matthew 11:28. Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Everyone who would unfold the Christ within and become a master medium must learn the lesson of Sincerity, must learn to say and mean it, I will be true to myself therefore true to all mankind. Must sincerely desire to gain the knowledge of the inner life, to hear the still small voice of the spirit and receive true guidance from the one universal source, the mind of the living God.

In the history of Jesus temptation and his triumphant victory over hypocrisy there is a lesson that every psychic must learn, for the people of earth will attempt to draw you from your purpose of finding yourself, the self made in the image and likeness of God. You will be told that there is danger to mind and body in delving into mystic realms, you will be told that God never intended you to understand the mysteries of your being. You will be told that in the after life is the time to learn of unseen things, you will be told that the pathway that Jesus taught is not the pathway for you and the heights to which he attained are impossible to you and all these things are the voice of hypocrisy.

Answer the tempters as Jesus answered his tempters, "My Father scorns deceit and I am here to do His will. I will find my way in thought to that meeting place of minds and know the truth for Jesus the teacher has said, 'Come unto me ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest.'" There is no peace for the seeking soul except the rest of knowledge. There is no peace for a mind out of tune with itself. I will find my soul in tune with God and know peace, thus repelling the command of the world and seeking the knowledge of the Christ within. I, too, shall win the scroll on which is written one word, Sincerity.

Extracts from lecture by Rev. A. William Goetz, Pastor of the Occult Science of Christ Church, Glendale.

The Pacific Steamship Company has announced that it proposes to apply to the California Railroad Commission for permission to increase class and commodity rates applying between San Francisco and San Diego and Wilmington, Cal., in order to cover the increased cost of operation.

NEW "OVER-SEAS CAP"

The "over-seas cap" now being issued to soldiers in the Expeditionary Forces matches the uniform in color, has a very low crown, and has no brim or peak. It is so made that it may be folded and carried in a pocket.

When American forces entered the trenches it was found that the brims of their campaign hats interfered with sighting through trench periscopes and that in the cases of tall men the high crowns could be seen above the parapets. The new cap is so low that it permits the men to move with practically the same freedom as when they are hatless. The trench helmet can be worn over it.

Only soldiers who have been with the Expeditionary Forces wear the cap. According to reports from France new regulations provide that officers shall wear their insignia of rank on the cap, and enlisted men place it on the button prescribed to be worn on the left side of the collar of the service coat.

GOVERNMENT POWDER PLANTS NOW IN OPERATION

Operation has begun in two Government powder plants two months ahead of schedule. When the task of building the plants was considered by the War Department in January it was predicted that the production of powder might begin in August, barring unforeseen delays.

The $120,000,000 allotted for the plants is expected to give the Government a smokeless powder production capacity equal to all other American plants combined. In construction of the plants it was found necessary to build a new town on each site to house the employees, and approximately 9,000 different buildings were erected. Streets were put down and sewered, power plants constructed, and stores and hospitals built. Approximately 35,000 men worked on construction and about 30,000 will eventually be engaged in the actual production of powder.

Thousands of women are employed in the United States gas-mask plant. They are acting as inspectors and are engaged throughout the entire process of manufacture, according to a statement from the Gas Defense Service. Hundreds of girls have been trained in the special art of sewing the face pieces. Each separate step in the assembling of the mask is done by women workers, until the mask is completed, the last inspection is made and the final product is ready for shipment overseas.

The three new national forests recently established in the East include approximately 658,000 acres.

HIS POEM

The following poem is incorporated in a letter written by Ray Hitchcock, nephew of Mrs. Shears of Kenwood street, to a friend in Glendale. He was residing in this city when he enlisted in the Field Artillery and was sent to the Presidio in San Francisco. He was transferred from there to Camp Kearny, whence he was sent to Camp Merritt, New Jersey, where he now is. He calls it "My Poem."

"Boy of Flanders, tell me pray
What you're dreaming of today.
What is it you see out there
Past the valleys of despair?
What is it that seems to lie
Past the place where soldiers die?
What is it that's worth your death,
Worth your last expiring breath,
Worth the distance you have come,
Following the stirring drum,
Worth the loneliness you bear,
What is it you seek out there?

"I had sent my soul afar
To the scenes where soldiers are,
Sent it to that dreadful place
Where is always death to face,
And I questioned them at night,
And the morning's golden light.
Boy and man, what is it here
In these chasms read with fear,
Haunted by the dead's last shriek,
That so gallantly you seek?
What great joy is worth the price
Of such noble sacrifice?

"Man from home, he said to me,
We are seeking victory.
That is why our cannons flame,
Why we left our home and came
To these valleys gaunt with fear.
Freedom lives or passes here.
Just beyond the battle's smoke
Where the dying gasp and choke,
Past these hours of grim despair
And the heartache and the care
And the sorrows that you see,
Lies the field of victory.

"Past the valleys of despair,
Past the heartache and the care
Just beyond the lines of hate
And the bitter guns that wait,
Past the dying boys who shriek
Agonies they can not speak,
Freedom's flag shall be unfurled,
Flinging beauty to the world;
So we stand intent to go
Forward through these vales of woe
In our own day of victory."

GENERAL PERSHING INSISTS THAT LETTERS BE WRITTEN HOME

"Duty to one's country does not end on the parade ground, nor even on the battle field, but consists in doing everything in one's power to help win the war," says an order issued by Gen. Pershing, a copy of which has been received by the War Department.

"To write home frequently and regularly to keep in constant touch with family and friends is one of the soldier's most important duties. Mothers and fathers will suffer if they do not hear often from sons fighting in France. In the present large companies it is not possible for officers to write letters for their men, and every man must do it for himself."

More than 69,000 masters, officers, and seamen on American merchant vessels traversing the war zones have been insured by the United States Government. This insurance totals more than $115,000,000. Claims under the insurance are so far a little more than $180,000.

EMERGENCY BUILDING TO PROVIDE FOR SOLDIERS COSTS $1,170,619,000

The total cost for National Army cantonments was $140,726,473, according to a statement by the War Department. The National Guard camps cost $38,375,272.

Emergency work to provide for soldiers in this country and to provide buildings for the manufacture and storage of material both here and abroad undertaken by the construction division of the Army, which has been executed or is under way and in prospect up to June 1, will cost about $1,170,619,000. This total is exclusive of three operations costing $106,000,000, under the direct control of the Ordnance Department.

Up to June 1 the construction division had completed 53 jobs, at a total cost of $202,250,000. It has 244 operations under way, which when finished will cost about $270,369,000. Preparations are being made to start work on 117 new operations which are expected to cost $700,000,000.

TESTS FOR AWARDING MEDAL OF HONOR

These tests are applied to cases recommended for the medal of honor, according to instructions issued as a guide to officers by Gen. Pershing:

Men who have performed in action deeds of most distinguished personal bravery and self-sacrifice above and beyond all call of duty; so conspicuous as clearly to distinguish them for gallantry and intrepidity above their comrades; which involve risk of life or the performance of more than ordinarily hazardous service, the omission of which would not justly subject the person to censure for shortcoming or failure in the performance of his duty.

The distinguished-service cross is awarded for gallantry in action to anyone who may distinguish himself in action by extraordinary heroism in connection with military operations against an armed enemy, under circumstances which do not justify the award of the medal of honor.

The distinguished-service medal is awarded for exceptionally meritorious service to the Government in connection with operations against an armed enemy.

As a result of the studies at the front, methods have been developed whereby more than 80 per cent of the wounded, who originally remained at the military hospitals for months, are now cured and returned to the forces in three or four weeks. In order that Army surgeons stationed at camps, cantonments, and other military hospitals in this country may thoroughly understand the latest treatment of war wounds, the Army Medical Department has had established special classes of instruction to which are sent selected officers who, upon completion of their courses, return to their own hospitals and instruct other surgeons in these methods.

The new collar insignia for the Army Air Service consists of a pair of horizontal bronze wings, with a silver two-bladed propeller placed vertically on them. It is worn by officers and enlisted men of the Department of Military Aeronautics and the Bureau of Aircraft Production. The hat cord for enlisted men will be green and black.

YOU may wonder in these times how we can sell a shoe like this at the price we ask. Some people are paying $10 and $12 today for shoes which we think are no better—if as good. This is a Selz all-leather shoe built of well selected stock. The workmanship is of the highest class as are all Selz shoes. It does not seem like war times at this store in either variety or price.

DRYING COSTS LITTLE

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Dehydration, or drying of fruits and vegetables, urged now by the U. S. government as a food-saving measure, costs but about ¼ cent a pound.

The process reduces the products treated to from 1-7 to 1-15 original size; and leaves a practically non-perishable food, affected by neither heat nor extreme cold. It requires no special container or sealing. Plain paper bags to protect against dust and insects are the best and cheapest containers.

Re-hydration—restoring the water to the vegetable—requires from 20 minutes to two hours; and the reconstituted product has lost neither its original flavor nor its color.

No ruler forced us into war—we choose our leaders.

More than 700,000 tons of cereal foodstuffs were shipped to the allies from North America during May, according to the Food Administration. April shipments were more than 800,000 tons.

The Selection of Foods

has become a vital and pressing problem, owing to conditions brought on by the war. The United States Food Administration recommends the wholesome kinds, such as vegetables that are not high-priced and that will save not only money for us "over here" but necessary wheat, meat and other staples for our boys "over there." Help us to help you to help them! Trade here.

LA CANADA

Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Scott, with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight of Pasadena, made a party which left Tuesday for a week at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Stultz and family went to Pomona on Sunday, calling on Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Burr, who made them bearers of greetings to their old friends in La Canada.

A knitting bee next Tuesday at Red Cross. Bring that knitting bag and knit. Sewing will be going on as usual.

Material for construction of the paving of Burr avenue was carried up on Tuesday. This is encouraging and promises an early start.

Even residents of La Crescenta come to the La Canada dairy for good buttermilk.

Mr. McLaughlin is the gentleman from La Crescenta who attended town meeting here Thursday of last week and helped to get some phases of the water question before those present. After much discussion a committee of three made up of Andrew M. Brown, H. McKay and M. McNaghten was appointed to investigate farther into the water situation and to confer with committees from the other interested communities.

Miss Aldine Norton, in company with twenty-six other teachers, leaves for Hawaii early in August, where she expects to begin a term of teaching.

The Malcolm McNaghtens attended a dinner party which was given to Mrs. McNaghten's father, Arthur Letts, by Mrs. Letts at her Hollywood home on Monday of last week.

C. B. Anderson, recently of La Canada, is acting as assistant general manager and treasurer for Jevne of Los Angeles.

As announced on the screen, "Over There," the great war play, will be shown at La Canada school Friday evening, July 5th. The residents of this valley are very fortunate in the opportunity of seeing this latest war feature at the date following our great national holiday. There has been no less than ten applications for this film for the above date, but it was booked by the committee early in May and contract signed for July 5th. "Over There" should appeal to every patriotic citizen. This film gives the story of a slacker who seeks to evade the draft but is forced to serve with the colors. Charles Richman takes the part of the slacker who, after participating in the conflict, is a credit to his country. Whatever happens, do not fail to see this picture. We realize fully the strain to which our pocketbooks are put at this time, but nevertheless a little inexpensive diversion is necessary to our wellbeing, therefore make the hearts of the committee glad by filling the auditorium to its capacity. Mrs. Metzger has charge of the music for this picture and it will be in keeping with the incidents portrayed. Charles Richman is supported by an all-star cast, including Anna O. Nilsson and Gertrude Bergeley. This picture is released through the Select Pictures Corporation. The photography is excellent and the trench warfare will bring home to us the battlefields of France. Those of you who have so nobly given of your sons, see their work in actual pictures. Help swell the funds for war relief. A Fox comedy, Hearts and Saddles, with Tom Mix, will also be shown at this date. Where can a better program be seen at such a small price? "Up the Road with Sallie" was a very pleasing entertainment and was enjoyed by all. The committee would have liked to see a larger audience, as the pictures being presented to La Canada are the best obtainable and are consequently expensive. Therefore, in order to keep up this class of entertainment the patronage of the people of the valley is very essential. Synopsis of "Over There" will be found in other columns of this paper.

Joe Leoni is working for E. G. Metcalf until his wrist is quite strong again.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Brown have as guests Mr. Brown's sister and husband from Northern California.

Ladies' Aid meets at the church on Wednesday next at 2:30 p. m. The usual earnest invitation is extended to all ladies of the valley.

Boys are busy buying W. S. S. from Max Green.

The pump of the Valley Water Co. was out of commission Thursday of last week.

Mr. Witham is setting out his ten acres adjacent to the state highway to winter tomatoes. He has his oat crop harvested.

Mrs. Phillips came over from Catalina Saturday for the week end. She is still delighted with the Island.

Sam Durand has been promoted to the listener's school. The listeners are those who are wise in the detection of U-boats. They are in a class by themselves and have little intercourse with common seamen.

Mrs. Harmon, who was pinned beneath her machine last week, was painfully bruised, suffering minor hurts, and still has one arm and hand in bandages.

Robt. Waterman cut his wrist quite badly with a saw on Tuesday.

Those who have both phones in their homes or in their business in La Canada have still to maintain both phones. If a user calls a Sunset number in Los Angeles on a Sunset phone he must pay a toll, but he can call the same number on the Home phone free. The service is admittedly poor, however.

A boys' club is in process of formation for all boys above the age of fourteen. The founders of the club have had two meetings. The object is to provide a gathering place for the young men and boys where all kinds of games may be played and social intercourse furthered. Some of the boys are much in earnest about the project and are taking a sincere and intelligent interest in the subject, which argues well for the club's success.

Pasadena Red Cross says the quota of hospital garments is very large and asks that gauze workers whose work is temporarily in abeyance turn in and help speed up on these garments.

Why has nothing been seen of that Liberty Loan banner which belongs to La Canada for going "Over the Top" in the Third Liberty Loan Drive? Where is it languishing?

Improvement meeting Saturday, June 29. An interesting program is arranged. Business of a vital character will come up. Everybody be on hand.

Mr. Westcott, who lives on the road to the Arroyo (the old Soledad trail), is a teacher at Occidental. He is now at San Pedro doing work as teacher of mechanical engineering.

There is talk of another relief ship to be sent from Los Angeles.

The second Red Cross War Fund is credited with an exceedingly handsome amount from La Canada. The cash collections ran up to $587.00, and pledges to $1,1692.00, totaling $2,279.00. La Canada branch will have 25 per cent of this to use.

A suggestion made by one of the members of the Girls' Club has been received with enthusiasm by others and is being rapidly passed on. The idea is to do something for the national conservation of food, to temporarily form into a "farmerette" club. Help is hard to obtain in the valley. The club will step in and do its level best to cope with the scarcity. One enthusiastic maiden has already engaged herself for three days a week. This idea with such an excellent start may prove the nucleus of a patriotic movement among us along these lines.

Dr. Elizabeth Saphro was called to San Francisco last week to confer with Dr. Lucas, with whom she will work in France. The doctor was measured for her uniform, for she has the ranking of an officer. Passports, transportation, route, hotels, are all outlined ready for the start, which will be in about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Earl had for guests over Sunday at their La Canada home, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Morena of Mexico who are visiting in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Will Slutman, who is living on the Will D. Gould ranch, has gone into the goat industry on quite a large scale. Her stock is full blooded, of the best strains. A large underground room where the milk is kept and butter and cheese are made is an adjunct which is to form a large part in the business. The ranch, comprising about 1600 acres, will furnish a large grazing ground for the goats. Rabbits will also be raised as a companion industry.

Lieutenant Stevens of the Royal Engineering Corps will be on his way to the front again in about three weeks. The Lieutenant is living on Fairview avenue with his parents. The young officer seems to be quite fit and quite recovered as to general health.

TUJUNGA

A meeting on Monday evening resulted in the appointment of Mr. Fitzgerald from this district to look after the annexation project.

Dr. Darling is up from Ocean Park to look after his home here.

A post card from Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker reports that they arrived at Wauseon, Ohio, in one month from the time they left Tujunga. They had no accidents and once were held up for a day by the rain. They enjoyed the trip very much, both keeping well all the way.

Frank Herrick was in Los Angeles on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Emma Patterson, a niece.

Some very fine potatoes from the gardens in Tujunga are attesting the fact that we have something besides rocks. Captain Hatch is marketing some very fine mammoth blackberries and in two weeks will have plenty of Himalayas. Fruits and vegetables of all kinds will be plenty in different gardens soon.

It's hard work to drum up recruits all the time and every woman in the colony owes it to her country to give a few hours each week to sewing or knitting for the Red Cross. Don't let an excuse keep you away on Fridays that you would put by without a thought if you wanted to go to the city. Conditions are serious, needs are great, and if you had a boy in service who could not have any comforts because some one did not feel like sewing, or had to go to the city, or had a headache, you would feel it. But because you have no one there, you do not stop to think that other boys are just as dear to their mothers as yours could be. The fact that our roster shows 146 names and only twenty-five turn out to sew, shows us there is a lack of patriotism somewhere. There is something more to do than wave a flag and sing national anthems. There is downright hard work ahead of us. With the terrible massacre on the front and the garments needed badly, let every woman arm herself with needle, thread and scissors and get lots of work done at the Red Cross Auxiliary sewing bee every Friday. If you can't come there, take some work home with you and show your good intentions.

Dr. White is staying in Pasadena for a few days with her sister and then will go to Catalina for a short stay, accompanied by Gertrude Van Battum and her daughter Rebecca.

Mrs. Dean was in Pasadena and Los Angeles on Wednesday. There was no wool for knitting, but there will be in a few days and it will be sent to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright, with the children and three of her brothers who were visiting here, motored up the Big Tujunga last Sunday and had a picnic.

Dr. Terry, wife and son, are at their home on San Ysidro road for a few days.

Mrs. Kopta of Pasadena has rented the house belonging to Miss Arthur for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Trukey of El Paso are in the Avery cottage for a time.

Mr. Noyes on San Ysidro road has taken over the Tribune route formerly handled by Joe Carr. We understand that Mr. Carr will go to the beach with his family for the summer.

Charles Warren and wife were up from Long Beach over Sunday. Mr. Warren is still working at the shipyards.

The strawberry festival held at the home of Mrs. Morgan the evening of June 20 was a marked success. The Episcopal Guild, for whose benefit the fete was given, cleared the sum of $20, these being the figures set as the goal. The guild is endeavoring to pay for the flooring of the basement of the church and wishes to express its appreciation to the public for its usual generous patronage. Among the guests from Tujunga mingled visitors from Pasadena, La Canada, La Crescenta and Sunland.

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. CHARLES H. TOLL, 1635 KENNETH ROAD

UNUSUAL PROGRAM FOR OUT-OF-DOOR RED CROSS BENEFIT AT TOLL RESIDENCE

The plans which are maturing for the garden party to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Toll on Kenneth road Saturday evening sound most enticing. In the first place it is a charming spot to visit, and under the light of a June moon, with glowing lanterns illuminating shadowy corners, with music and a gay throng in holiday mood, it will make a very pretty scene. The fact that it is a Red Cross benefit with all receipts going to the local chapter will also draw many patrons, and to compensate all comers a splendid program has been prepared. Messrs. Walker & Wilde, the Ford Agents, as their contribution to the Red Cross have undertaken to secure the use of a large number of automobiles which will serve as buses for the transportation of guests to the Toll grounds. A ten-cent fare will be charged, the receipts to go to the Red Cross treasury. These automobiles will be marked with a Red Cross to distinguish them from the regular taxicabs, so there will be no difficulty in reaching the scene of festivities.

The chief entertainer of the evening, B. T. Robley, is connected with the University of California at Berkeley and has charge of its extension work in Southern California. He has been a professional reader for the past ten or fifteen years and has achieved such a reputation in this semi-dramatic role that the University annexed him, made him a member of its faculty, and put him at the head of its entertainment department. He is deeply patriotic and anxious to do his bit in the war and so has been making a tour of the cantonments, reading for the soldier boys. So successful has he been that the boys would scarcely release him from the stage. At one entertainment he was kept until after midnight, or two hours past his schedule time, responding to calls for the favorites of the soldiers. That is perhaps one reason why the committee in charge of this party decided to invite as special guests the Coast Artillery boys now at the Rifle Range, and it altogether likely that many of them will be there. Mr. Robley has also been anxious to contribute to the Red Cross and has adopted this method. Mrs. Toll is the Southern California representative on the Advisory Board of the State University, and through her he learned it would be possible for him to give such an entertainment in Glendale. Needless to say his services are donated to the cause, and Glendale is fortunate in having so beautiful a setting for the affair.

Mr. Robley's program will be supplemented by fine musical numbers by professionals and refreshments will be served. The admission fee will be 25 cents, a meager amount for an evening which promises so much pleasure.

TO INCREASE LIVESTOCK IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco will become the center of the live stock industry of the Pacific Coast with the holding of the first live stock show in that city November 2nd to 10th inclusive. The California International Live Stock Show Corporation filed articles of incorporation recently and will handle the management and details of the show under the patronage of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

With the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce a premium list of $30,000 has been guaranteed.

Edgar J. De Pue in an interview stated: "California is a state of tremendous live stock possibilities, particularly in the raising of pure-bred stock. Although California live stock at a recent Chicago International show took three championships, the quality of our live stock, the benefits of breeding pure-bred stock and our vast resources in live stock capacity have never properly been brought to the attention of our own people.

"No method comparable to that of shows has been devised to develop the industry. No development will add more to the prosperity of the state than an increased output of pure-bred milk and meat making animals. California should supply the herd heads of the territory west of the Rocky Mountains, including Mexico and the Islands.

"It is our hope and belief that through these exhibits the demand upon the part of our people for high grade stock will be tremendously increased."

OBLIGING THE TAILOR

A long-suffering tailor in Philadelphia recently addressed one of his patrons as follows:

"Dear Sir—Will you kindly send me the amount of your bill and oblige?"

To which the obliging delinquent replied: "The amount is $1105.50." —Puck.
